A young Indigenous artist from Goreng Goreng mob in Queensland.

Coda Ridley, exhibiting as CodaJadee, is a young Indigenous artist from Goreng Goreng mob in Queensland. Coda attended Evans High School in Blacktown, where she was involved in the Solid Ground Artist in Residence Program. Coda has shown incredible talent in her paintings, and after just graduating high school and turning 18, Coda has already been commissioned for exhibitions and projects as well as being accepted to the National Art School, and receiving a $45,000 arts scholarship to complete her studies.
