This information is correct at the time of publishing, provided to you by the organisers of Vivid Sydney as a community announcement to help minimise traffic disruption throughout the CBD and areas of Greater Sydney. Organisers are working together with the NSW Police Force, Transport for NSW and other NSW Government stakeholders to ensure that Vivid Sydney 2026 operates at the highest possible standard whilst minimising the impact of the event on residents, businesses and road users.

Buses and light rail services in the city will be affected and will use different stops while roads are closed for the event. Keep in mind that ferries are a popular way to travel during Vivid Sydney and typically reach capacity on weekends, so plan a backup option too.

In 2026, Vivid Sydney is a continuous 6.5km Light Walk from Circular Quay and The Rocks, Barangaroo, Cockle Bay & Darling Harbour, all of which are easily accessible by public transport. Additional public transport services will operate throughout the festival period. With major road closures and parking restrictions in effect, public transport is the most convenient way to travel. Ensure you have a valid Opal card and top it up online in advance to avoid queues at top-up machines. Alternatively, you can use a contactless debit or credit card, or a linked device, to top up and off
